This form must be filled out correctly. It should be forwarded to the Secretary of the club to which you are applying for membership. After being dealt with by that club, the club secretary shall then forward the application to the Federation Administration Manager for presentation at the next Federation meeting. For an application to be successful, it must receive a two third majority of votes in favour. If an applicant fails to gain membership, he/she may apply again after a period of three months has elapsed. The decisions of the club and federation committee's are definitely final.
